

SENIOR TRAVELERS SCHEDULE FOR 2009

CONDENSED FROM DECISIONS MADE AT COMMITTEE MEETING JAN 23, 2009

- January Annual Brunch-completed-45 attendees-Helen, Jerry and Sally-
- February Picking Porch, Bristol Mall with dinner at Picadilly. Gil and Mary. 283-7767.
- March Niswonger Performing Arts Center, Greeneville, March 5, Knoxville Symphony Orchestra. 7:00 PM, $15 adults. Leader, Rose Willis, 282-3325.
- April Wild Flower pilgrimage at Holston Camp with lunch in dining room prepared by staff. Jerry and Sally Nagel-928-0853. Charge for lunch?
- May Bays Mountain Park (Kingsport city park). Lunch brown bag picnic in the park, bring your own food and drink, attend star show in the planetarium, stroll through the animal park and ride the barge on the lake observing wildlife and scenery. CB Willis 282-3325.
- June Grove Park Inn, Asheville visit and tour, railroad museum, lunch at Atlanta Bread, dutch. Glay Hood, 926-7311.
- July Story Telling (In Residence-Jonesborough) or an available local musical, perhaps with meal in restaurant. Bob and Betty Maletich, 282-6684.
- August Picnic-somewhere, Fishery Park, Erwin possibility. Alan and Debbie Lewis, 743-8113.
- September Planning for trip to Williamsburg, Jamestown, Yorktown, etc. More later. Rose Willis 282-3325.
- October Trip to the Blue Ridge Parkway to see the leaves, visit the Altapass Orchard and enjoy our brown bag lunches in a nice area. CB Willis, 282-3325.
- November ETSU for musical program. More later-Rose Willis 282-3325

December Christmas party and lunch at the Church. More later. Mary Derouen, 283-7767.

January Annual Brunch. Helen